

Christine Stragazzi is a highly successful Apparel and Accessory Executive with extensive industry experience in Merchandising, Planning and Product Development. She has worked with brands such as Lafayette 148, Tommy Hilfiger and Liz Claiborne. Her expertise is in streamlining and leading the line building, product development, inventory management, costing and procurement functions.

Christine is a dynamic leader, who possesses a strong ability to maintain a focus on the consumer and competition within each sales channel to align sales, design, and merchandising strategies. She is also a dedicated, student-centric educator skilled at developing curriculum designed to prepare and motivate students for a career in fashion business management. Trained instructor in both face-to-face and online teaching formats. Christine is currently an Assistant Professor in the Fashion Business Management Department at the Fashion Institute of Technology.