

Tyler Simigran is a highly accomplished professional with extensive experience in the retail industry. As an Undergrad and graduate Adjunct Professor at LIM College, he has imparted his knowledge and expertise to the next generation of business professionals. Tyler has worked as a Technology Strategist, Retail Professional, and Business Specialist, holding key positions in several leading organizations, including MARIA TASH, FAO Schwarz, Teamwork Commerce, and Nordstrom. Tyler's mother, Patti Simigran, is also a Retail Executive, and he has been exposed to the world of retail since childhood, attending fashion shows, market weeks, trade shows, and buying trips.